I see that the Mosby guerrillas have had another reunion-this time at Everything else in the Watch, Clock Fairfax, Va., where Mosby captured Brig.-Gen, Edwin H. Stoughton and started on the ro d to fame. He was enebad to effect this amezing coup de Fil. New York Cavairy, who deserted the command because, he said, "the war and oncome a war for the negro to stead of a war for the Union." Americal led the way to Fairfax, where Stough to had been entertaining royally that deeply. Mo by walked up to the bed and pulled off the cover. Stoughton slept on. The ranger pulled the gererai's spir and gave bim a hard spank which sat the brigadier up in ed, rubing his eyes. "General, did you ever hear of Mosby?" whispered the guerila. "Yes," was the quick reply; "navyou captured him?" "No; I am Mosby, and he has captured you. Stuart's cavalry holds the town and Jackson is at Centreville." This was a lie to de-prive Sloughton of hope. "Is Fitz Lee there?" be asked, in an excess of agony "Yes." "Take me to him; we were at West Point together." Stoughton's reputation was blasted. He was soon after exchanged, but never re-entered the army. He practiced law in New York for a while, then went to Boston to die. Mosby always said that this adventure was never duplicated. The northern army got to smart for him. It was one of those acts a man can be capable of only once in a lifetime be cause the opportunity never offers a second time. Col. Johnstone, of the Fifth New York Cavalry, was surprised the night Stoughton was caught, but escaped from his bouse in his shirt, hiding in an outhouse till day break. When he crawled out of his hole he tore the shirt off and went to the house stark naked. Here his wife refused to embrace him until he had been scrub-bed and washed down with a hose. He could not survive the ridicule of appear ing at headquarters in a state of naturethe guerrillas having taken his wardrobe—and soon resigned his commission.

Troublesome to the Army.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa. is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Colera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such a quick relief. It is for sale by all druggists.

Beauty Is Blood Deep. Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets,—beauty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed, 10c, 25c, 50c.

In India, the land of famine, thousands die because they cannot obtain food. In Amer-ica, the land of plenty, many suffer and die because they 'annot digest the food they eat. Kodel Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. It instantly relieves and radically cures all stomach troubles.
